Dear Mrs Robinson,

I would like to send you my deepest sympathies on your sad loss. It came as a great shock to hear of Dr Robinson's terrible illness, and he will be greatly missed by everybody who knew him, particularly those who, like me, had the good fortune to have him as a tutor. He was an inspiring teacher and a friend I am proud to have had. I can only guess at your feelings. If there is anything I can do please do not hesitate to let me know.

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,

Malcolm Smith
